Reflections

Graduation, and a senior looks back at four years of undergraduate life. These were the years of growth and learning; they were the times of intense happiness and deep sorrows, times when one lived fully and completely, gathering in life with both hands, as one had never done before, and might never do again.

Graduation, and a senior looks ahead to the adult life which stretches before him. He is a little frightened, perhaps, aware of the complexity of life today, but on the whole confident in his own ability. He is earnest and eager, knowing that he holds his life in his own hands, and that he possesses the strength to mold it as he wishes.

Seeking knowledge rather than facts, treasuring truth rather than facts, exploring the endless realms of consciousness, one is inspired. For inspiration is not a lightning streak in the night, striking haphazardly on barren deserts as well as fertile plains. It is the culmination of long periods of work, thought, and analysis. True inspiration is the achievement of a noble mind, and the reward of a life lived fully and intensely. It is the fulfillment of a yearned-for ideal, the justification of education for its own sake. Let us acclaim the inspired man, for he is, of all men, most truly alive.

Gridiron

St. Lawrence University

Canton, New York

Dedication

Mrs. Harriett N. Burgess

Looking back over our four years at St. Lawrence, most of us find there has been at least one person to whom we are deeply indebted for aiding our somewhat erratic lives along these memorable years. The men who have lived in Men's Res will always remember "Ma" Burgess with fond affection and deep respect as one of those persons who helped guide them in some of their insecure moments.

Regardless of the closeness of the student's association with "Ma" Burgess, one could not help admiring the way in which she handled her job of administering the Res. In spite of occasional incidents caused by the action of some students — seemingly supported by the Latin truism, humanum est errare — "Ma" Burgess, with her inexhaustible patience and understanding, always managed to navigate the ship unfaltering along its course.

Although she is leaving St. Lawrence, "her boys" will always remember her as one of the persons who will continue in her unselfish manner to maintain that "candle in the wilderness."

President of
St. Lawrence University

You will acquire many books in your lifetime. For the most part they will come and go, but the Gridiron will be there in the end. It will be there among the cherished things — with the diplomas, the prizes, the mementos of never-to-be-forgotten occasions. No segment of life will be remembered or more often recalled than your college years. The Gridiron is your package of memories.

Concentration

The reading world is a very private domain, and one walks alone through its gates. No sounds, sights or smells from outside shatter one's privacy; all interruptions are distant and unreal. Concentrating deeply, one is in intimate communion with other minds, absorbing the knowledge of centuries, assimilating the achievements of mankind. "The proper study of mankind is man" — surely the dreams, thoughts and aspirations of great men is a topic well worth the effort of concentration. Consciousness exists, not merely in the present, but in the past, and the attainment of past and present consciousness is a great step up the stairway of education.

Phi Beta Kappa, the oldest Greek letter organization, is the international scholastic honorary, recognized the world over as having a membership comprised of men and women of outstanding minds.

At St. Lawrence, the chapter president is Dr. Max Kopp, Dean of the Theological School. Under his direction, among other things, was the invitation of a Phi Beta Kappa Visiting Lecturer to speak during the fall.

It has been an option for the chapter to select in the fall one or two of the top seniors for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, if the chapter deems them sufficiently outstanding scholastically. Lila Brush and Richard Smith were chosen in the fall of 1960.

The majority of the senior members were tapped during the Spring semester and presented at Moving-Up Day. Several more members were chosen at graduation in June.

Phi Beta Kappa

Mortar Board

Mortar Board is a national senior women's honorary which endeavors to promote college loyalty, to advance the spirit of service and fellowship among university women, to promote and maintain a high standard of scholarship, to recognize and encourage leadership to stimulate and develop a finer type of college woman. New members are tapped on Moving-Up Day from the women in the junior class who have shown outstanding achievement in areas of Scholarship, Leadership, and Service.

Under the guidance of advisors Mrs. Botes, Miss Catter, Deon Staut, and Mrs. Frederic Warner and president, Lucy Prescott, the group organized the Major Forums, sponsored a Roundtable Discussion on Nuclear Warfare, and catalogued information on graduate schools. They also worked with ODK to screen Thelma candidates, officiate at Thelma and class elections, and usher at important University functions. For the second year Mortar Board awarded a plaque to the woman with the greatest scholastic improvement over two semesters.

Omicron Delta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national honorary organization for men who have shown outstanding service to the St. Lawrence University campus and who have, at the same time, maintained a good scholastic record. Tapping for this organization occurs once a year and is held on the triangle in front of Richardson Hall immediately following the Moving-Up Day ceremony. In order to achieve membership in ODK a man must have held one major office on campus and must have contributed in several additional ways to the university.

ODK brings together representative men from all phases of campus life and thus creates an organization that can help to mold the sentiment of the institution on questions of local and intercollegiate interest. It also incorporates the ideas of members of the faculty and student body on a basis of mutual interest and understanding. The members of ODK are expected to maintain a high degree of leadership and responsibility to the students and administration and to encourage and set a good example for those who follow them.

In later years it was changed to an honorary group. Now candidates for Mummers earn membership on the basis of an established point system. Along with the required number of points candidates must have a cooperative spirit and genuine interest in promotion of campus dramatics.

Pi Mu Epsilon, national mathematics honorary, is formed for the purpose of promoting mathematical scholarship among university students. Qualifications for membership are a 3.2 over-all average and a 87.5 mathematics average. A monthly meeting is held at Dr. Bates' house at which a member heads a discussion on some topic of mathematical significance. Each year the members of Pi Mu Epsilon formulate a math exam to be presented to the high school students of St. Lawrence and Franklin Counties. A $400 scholarship is presented to the individual attaining the highest score. Happiness

With full hearts and open arms, we welcome the world. For we are the joyful ones, the children of fortune, and the soothsayer may well predict that we shall inherit the earth. Reaching heights of exaltation, soaring high above the valleys of despair, our eyes are opened wide, and we see before us the panorama of life. Capable of great suffering, man is distinguished by his unique capacity for great happiness. And we—we are youth and vitality; there is nothing we cannot do. Our ideals are unstained and our hopes are limitless. Defeat! Thou art not ours!

Alpha Delta Pi

With the end of another year, we can look back on another year of memories. It was a successful year including fun and achievement. We remember our Shoeshine Day to raise money for the Cerebral Palsy Fund — our Open House after the Alumni hackey game with a top-notch band — the night all our beds were frenched by our (wonderful!) pledge class — the enjoyable faculty coffee — our Christmas party with Caroline Stuart as Santa — our Easter party with Linda Buhl as the Easter Bunny — our costume Halloween dinner — endless bridge games — crowded snack time in the kitchen every night — the Sunday supper guests — and our Italian Pledge party in honor of our great class.

ADPi made its mark on the campus with two Phi Beta Kappas — members in several other honoraries — winners in the Steinman Arts Festival awards — future WSGA pres — head of Orientation — secretary-general of Model Security Council — and other campus offices. We are especially pleased that we are first scholastically for the fourth consecutive time.

We at ADPi won't forget our times of fun with every girl in the house, and with Mrs. C., our wonderful housemother. We hope that many more memories will be added with each year.

Delta Delta Delta

All the girls at the Delta House look back on this year with fondest memories. The freshman men's Open House began the excitement of meeting the new freshman class. With the coming of October we were deep into our studies, but took time out to work on our annual Mum Sale. Our Homecoming display won first prize and we were very proud of our "over-sized mum."

As the year moved on, we hurried to keep up. Bobbie Otis blushed when Dave Brubeck crowned her "Miss Legs." Ellen Johnson shed a few tears of joy when she was named a ROTC Sponsor. We picked up the Christmas spirit at our Christmas party for the faculty children and then again at our own party. The grand exchange of gifts included everything from squeaking clothespins and pick-up-stix, to bubble blowers and false eyelashes.

After the anxiety of exams our anxieties were not over. Pledge Sunday grew nearer. We reaped the fruits of the semester's efforts and welcomed 16 new pledges and our French exchange student, Joelle Lomarla. Then came Winter Carnival and Karen Allred was chosen to reign over the weekend. In April we hunted for our oldest shirts and dungarees and looked forward to "Work Week."

Perhaps some of our best memories of 1960-61 will be of the fun we had living and working with our sisters: the Halloween apple dunk . . . the rock 'n roll parties . . . the birthday dinners . . . the demolition crew . . . the Fort Lauderdale party . . . and the night the lights went out.

But we must bid farewell and give many thanks to our president, Barb Hastings, who led us through this wonderful year. As we look forward to the future years, we hope that they will bring more fun and achievement for everyone.

President,
Barbara Hastings

1960-61 will indeed be a memorable year for Gamma Omega. This was the year that we started out as a brand new chapter of Delta Gamma.

Our pledging ceremony took place in September at Chi Chapter, Cornell University — an occasion we had looked forward to for some time. Under pledge trainer, Julie Shepard, we began our pledge program, and on December 3rd Rho Chapter, Syracuse University, came up to Canton to initiate us. Gamma Omega was officially installed as a chapter.

Among our projects for the year (in addition to all the house painting and lawn raking) was a program for reading lessons to Chuck Horthor, a blind student. Recently we have started collecting old eye glasses for "Eyes For The Needy."

Along with all the work that goes into a sorority, especially a new one — Gamma Omegas had time for other activities too. On our social agenda were coffees with Kappa Kappa Gamma, Phi Kappa Sigma, and Phi Delta from Clarkson. We had dinners at Dr. and Mrs. Bewkes' house and at the Kappa Lodge. Other social functions included an Open House for the freshmen men last fall and a cocktail party MERP weekend for the DG's and their dates. Women's Pledge Sunday saw our first attempt at having a big meal in the house when we invited the Sigma Chi's for a buffet dinner.

Gamma Omega is proud of its achievements for the year. As a Chapter we are possessors of the SAE Yukon Day Dog Sled Race trophy, the Winter Carnival Ice Statue trophy, and the WARA activities trophy. Gamma Omega stood out individually in scholastic achievements and in campus positions.

This has been a full year — full of work, full of pleasure. Sometimes we had disappointments and sometimes deep satisfactions. Our first year will surely be remembered in all the ones to come.

Another chapter has been added to the ever-growing volume of Kappa Delta memories. We write of the busy whirl of studying, working, talking, and playing . . . of joys and sorrows, of reminiscing, of planning for the future, but mainly of the enjoyment we find in our day-to-day activities.

Flipping through the pages we look with a note of pride at the year's scholastic honors — Dean's List, Phi Beta Kappa, Psi Chi, Beta Beta Beta, Gamma Sigma Epsilon, Alpha Epsilon Rho, Sophomore Honorary. We move on to see the Kappa Deltas in campus activities — Laurentian Singers, Larriettes, IRC, WSGA, Winter Carnival committees, Pan-Hel president, WSGA treasurer, Student Union Program chairman and Head Orientation Leader.

Warmly, we pause to think of our pledges, now initiates, and the happy times we all had in getting them acquainted with the ways of Kappa Delta. We won't forget their Easter party complete with pink bunny and fluffy white toil, White Rose Week, the surprise pledge picnic or Initiatory Banquet.

Other pages are filled with reminiscences of our stately Sue Bush as Head Sister, Strawberry Breakfast, the kitchen every night at ten, trips to Colgate, sunning on the side porch, Willy and the Halloween party, "na hat water," talk of Mrs. Carnel's trip to the Orient, quiet hours, exchange dinners, mail time, senior camps, and all of our life here at 53 Park Street.

In concluding the '60-61 edition of memories, we add a special mention of our graduating sisters, a cheer for all the help they have given us and the heartiest wishes for every future success to each of them.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Thinking back on the 1960-61 school year, we realize how quickly the year went by, for it was full of things we did together as a house. In the Fall, there were the freshman men's Open House . . . the football game with the freshman men . . . the Homecoming Coffee . . . the Halloween party and pumpkin carving contest . . . the winning of Derby Day . . . and the Alumnae Tea. There were also exchange overnights with sororities and exchange dinners with the fraternities. Winter activities to be remembered were Yukon Day . . . the Christmas party with Santa Claus Lally . . . the trophy won for contributing the most to the Alpha Charity Sale, and of course, Women's and Men's Pledge Sundays. We were also proud to be featured in the winter edition of our sorority magazine, The Key. Spring brought the pledge dance . . . our scholarship bridge . . . a few unscheduled early morning copers . . . Initiation and Initiatory Banquet . . . Strawberry Breakfast . . . the un-birthday dinner, and the shower for our engaged sisters, Patty Linderoth and Dianne Zanow.

Many Kappas were awarded individual scholastic honors throughout the year. The Kappas were well represented in Phi Beta Kappa and the Sophomore Honorary, and on the Dean's List. There were members in the psychology, radio, math, journalism, biology, chemistry, and English honoraries.

All in all, it was a good year scholastically and socially for the Kappas. The things we did together will not be soon forgotten.

President, Georgia Bowers

A memorable year of honors, activities, work, and parties, came to the red brick on St. Lawrence Ave. during the past year. We owe much to the fine leadership of Georgia Bowers.

The Pi Phis were well represented in the various clubs and organizations on campus, with the president of Pan Hellenic Council, president of Mortar Board, president and secretary of WSGA, and secretary of Student Union. There was a Pi Phi in practically every honorary, several on Dean's List, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. We were all very proud of our outstanding sisters.

Many social and house activities contributed to the highlights of the year. There was Homecoming and our toothbrush display which won honorable mention, the new MERP weekend with our Rock 'n Roll party, and work on the Roaring Twenties party. The Pi Phi annual bake sale was another activity of the fall months. Christmas came and went, and suddenly another semester was upon us with still more fun and activity. It brought a snowless Winter Carnival, a wonderful Pledge Sunday, Scholarship Dinner, the secrets of Bunny Week, and our Easter party. All too soon came the activities closing the year: Initiatory Banquet, Puddle party, Spring Weekend, our pledge bannier, finals, and graduation.

We regret losing our fine senior class, but eagerly look forward to another enjoyable and successful year at the Pi Phi house.

The college year 1960-61 has been an yielding a series of outstanding achievements and successes for the brothers of Alpha Tau Omega. Of the ten Alphas represented on the football team, six of them were starters. Once more, brother Terry Slater, All-American and captain for the second straight year, led the team to the NCAA tournament to clinch second place in the nation.

ATO's were numerous on other athletic teams such as golf, baseball, and tennis. Another distinction the Alphas earned was its undefeated intramural hockey team. There is not a brother in the house who has ever seen the hockey team lose a game.

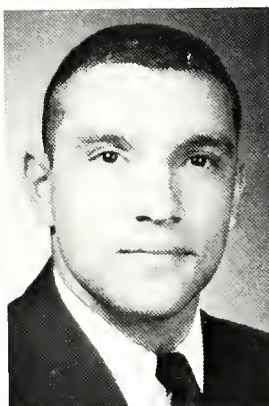

The ATO's, as well as earning a prominent place in athletics, were active in nearly every other phase of campus life. T. J. Fitzgerald was treasurer of Thelma, and Larry Jensen was elected to the position of Chief Justice of Student Judiciary Board. Also, Alphas hold the position of president and veep of Scabbard and Blade, vice-president of IFC, treasurer of Student Union, president, vice-president, and treasurer of Outing Club, and campus social chairman.

The second annual Alpha Charity Auction was deemed a tremendous success, and netted $500 for the United Fund. It will be hard for anyone to forget how the ATO house became a Hawaiian village for Spring Weekend, and won "Best Decorations."

ODK, Beta Beta Beta, Scabbard and Blade, Sigma, and Alpha Kappa Delta are among the honoraries to which ATO's belong. Needless to say, ATO was active throughout every phase of campus life in contributing to the success of the '60-'61 year.

Beta Zeta played a prominent part in University life during 1960-61.

The chapter's proudest feat came in winning the IFC scholarship trophy after finishing fifth the year before. Beta Zeta has never fallen below the all men's average at St. Lawrence.

In campus elections, Betas won four of the possible six class officer positions: Frederick Cassin, senior class treasurer; Charles Luyster and Daniel Shulman, junior class president and treasurer, respectively; and Robert Lockwood, sophomore class treasurer.

Shulman was voted Thelma president for '61-'62 and Wallace Brown treasurer. Cassin and Paul Liebhardt were vice-president and secretary-treasurer of Omicron Delta Kappa. William Newton served as president of Student Judiciary as did Andy Nevin for IFC.

In other campus activities, a Beta was co-editor of the Hill News, chairman of Homecoming and Moving-Up Day weekends, vice-president and treasurer of L Club, and sports editor of the Gridiron.

Socially, the founding by Norman Smith of the "Beta Band" provided the campus with music not only at Beta, but at other fraternity and sorority parties as well. A Christmas party for the welfare children of the area highlighted the year's list of house social functions.

Beta Zeta's contribution to St. Lawrence athletics has always been outstanding and the past year was no exception. At least one captain on every varsity sport was a Beta. Overall, 40 Betas competed on St. Lawrence's 11 intercollegiate varsity teams. At the L Club Banquet in May, five Betas received most valuable player awards, three the coach's discretion award, one a most improved award, and the senior-scholar award.

Beta Zeta's eleven intramural teams finished second in a race that was not decided until May. It was the first time in seven years that the Betas did not win the sports banner, however.

The 1960-61 school year could not have been a better one for the brothers of Phi Kappa Sigma. Under the outstanding leadership of Hal Schwartz and Don Bunis, the Phi Kaps have produced an enviable record of accomplishments.

The fall and spring pledge periods have demonstrated that Beta Iota Chapter will continue to grow. Twenty-one new brothers were added to the house during these periods.

Phi Kaps have demonstrated their ability in almost every phase of campus life. Palynesian Party and the San Francisco Beatnik Party were just a few of the highlights of our social calendar. Brothers served well in Thelma, IRC, Debate Club, the varsity baseball team, Mummers' productions, and in a special reading of Oedipus Rex.

Outstanding ability was also demonstrated in KSLU, the Hill News, the Laurentian Singers, IFC Weekend committees, ROTC, and the Laurentian.

The brothers are confident that the coming year will be even more rewarding than this year has been.

It is with deep sadness that the brothers view the death of brother Stephen Schweiger last May.

Phi Sigma Kappa

President, Mike Mixsell

A well-rounded year for a well-rounded house characterizes the Phi Sigs for '60-'61. Our biggest Christmas party and our second annual clambake an Moving-Up Day highlighted the social events that were augmented by an Agrarian party, a swimming party in Massena put on by the spring pledges, and last, but not least, numerous baanies.

The Phi Sigs captured a variety of awards which included the trophy for IFC Songfest, a tape recorder for the most patronized booth at the campus Charity Carnival, and the intramural tennis trophy.

Prized among the awards won and received during the year was the national Phi Sigma Kappa "Best Chapter Award." Xi chapter at St. Lawrence won over 70 other chapters of Phi Sigma Kappa in fields including scholarship, participation in extra-curricular activities, community service, responsibility in national fraternity relations, and others.

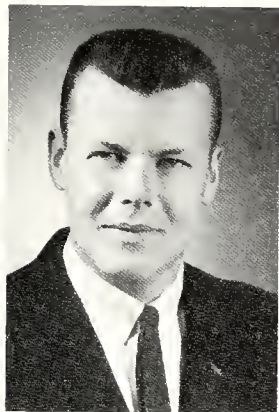

The brothers were all represented in many and varied activities. Sandy Towle led Thelma through a successful year. Mike Mixsell and Steve Brecher headed the editorial and business staff of the Hill News, respectively, while Ran Gabis served as editor of the Gridiron. Fred Hecklinger presided over Omicron Delta Kappa. Others held responsible positions in the Student Union, Laurentian Singers, IFC, Winter Carnival committee, KSLU, and Campus Carnival committee. On the individual level, John Perry was elected president of the sophomore class, ROTC Battle Group Commandership was shared by Fred Brigham and John Householder, and Pete Gottlieb was named best actor for his role in "Barn Yesterday" while Jack Jabes received best supporting actor award. Mike Mixsell was the recipient of the Alexander Black Memorial Award in journalism, and John Householder received the Inger Ja Hanson Memorial Citizenship Award.

In the intramural program, John Angela won first place in the tennis tournament and Dave Crittenden won his weight class in wrestling. The bowling team was squeezed out of first place in its last match, but the house finished a respectable third in the sports banner race.

The house was presided over by Jack Jabes during the first semester, and Mike Mixsell during the second.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

This year's Presidents Wayne Jally and Pete Van Vleet provided the necessary leadership to make 1961 a highly successful year for SAE.

The Fall semester was highlighted by pledging 23 upperclassmen, by numerous boanies, and a dinner dance. SAE intramural teams dropped only one hackey game during the first semester and remained undefeated in all other sports.

The second semester was highlighted by such events as the fourth annual campus-wide Yukon Day and Barnacle Ball.

SAE was represented widely in all campus activities. It is not unusual to find SAE's as officers and chairmen of various organizations and committees such as IFC Weekend and Winter Carnival. Brathers were active in varsity sports, Laurentian Singers, Saints, University Choir, Thelma, and many other campus activities.

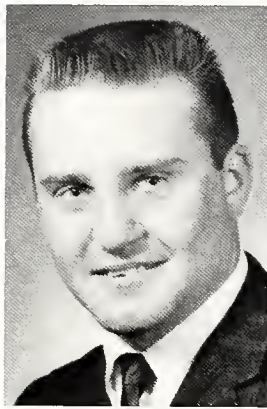

All the brathers enjoyed this academic year and are looking forward to another such year in 1961-62.

Sigma Chi

President, Joe Sheflin

Epsilon Iota of Sigma Chi, under the strong and vital leadership of Joe Sheflin and Pete LaRoche has acquired a record of achievements and activities. From the annual Derby Day in the fall (which saw the crowning of "Miss Legs" by Dave Brubeck) through spring rushing to the Sweetheart Ball and the squeeze of final exams (Grind!), Sigma Chi's memories of the 1960-61 year are certain to be vivid and long-lasting.

Sigs have been active this year in KSLU, Hill News, Saints, Laurentian Singers, as well as Ski Patrol, Outing Club, and Debate Society. Aside from accomplishments in varsity and intramural athletics, other brothers have brought honor to the House by being the presidents of Mummies, Phi Sigma Tau, Outing Club, and Student Union. The philosophy, chemistry, physics, biology, mathematics, radio, and psychology honoraries number Sigs among their members as do Omicron Delta Kappa and Phi Beta Kappa.

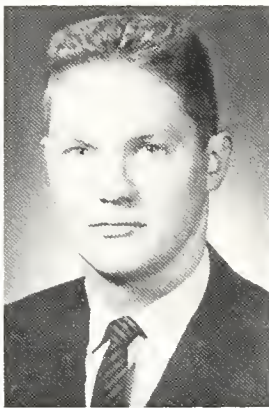

This record has been the manifestation of the firm belief that men of varying interests, ideas, and abilities can live and work together in harmony. Through the active leadership and enthusiasm of the seniors, the nome of Sismo Chi will enjoy success and prestige.

Sigma Pi

Alpha Zeta brothers and the St. Lawrence University campus look back upon 1960-61 as a year of continual growth and progress. Under the fine leadership of our house officers and the guidance of our advisor, Mr. Charles Gruner, Sigma Pi has again achieved a distinguished position on campus.

Last fall, Homecoming Weekend display trophy was again carried away under the Medieval theme of "Knight Unseated — Alfred Defeated." Alpha Zeta also distinguished itself due to its unprecedented, in recent years, activity in intramurals. Sigma Pi brothers were also active in all other campus activities such as ROTC, Thelmo, IFC, Frosh Orientation, Sports Car Club, Debate Club, Hill News, KSLU, boasting also the captain of the rifle team, Justice on IFC Judiciary Board, vice-president of the Student Union, and president of the government honorary.

Above all, we are most proud of our pledge classes which was the reward of the ideal fraternity goals of work and co-operation so well expressed by one and all at 48 Park this fall.

We lose a fine senior class this year. It is our hope that Sigma Pi has helped in preparing them for what lies ahead, and we wish them well in their chosen fields. We thank them for their help in making the future of Sigma Pi that much brighter, and hope that they can look back on a real Sigma Pi year, just one of the many to follow.

This year the Independent women continued many past traditions. At the Christmas party, the fire crackled in the Whitman Hall fireplace, and gifts, donated by each girl, were given to orphans in the Cantan area.

In the Spring, the main event was the Spring Banquet, the second to be held in Whitman Hall. Faculty and freshman and upperclass independent women enjoyed the oriental atmosphere conveyed by the oriental food and Japanese gardens.

Independent women have also served as officers of WARA, and have participated in Thelma, intramurals and other activities.

Independent men participated in intramurals, Thelma, and other campus activities. Individual dorm activities, including parties were also held by the men.

Creativity

A fine play, a stirring performance, a brilliant poem, a provoking essay — these are the results of creativity, symbols of the stature which mankind has attained. For creation is perhaps the highest achievement possible to man, and the ability to create the great distinction between mind and non-mind.

The dramatist, the author, the artist, the composer — creating their work from the living material of human capacity, find that this material is boundless in its scope, and need only be molded into shape, carefully, for it is fragile, firmly, for it is powerful. Their creativity involves the channeling of natural talents, the harmonization of divergent parts; above all, the realization that the manner in which one creates determines the quality of the creation.

On September 9th the campus was covered by the class of 1964, beanie in hand, and the orientation leaders loaded under the weight of suitcases, trunks, stuffed animals, and radios. The members of the Orientation Committee, this year under the co-chairmanship of Wes Agor and Caroline Stuart, soon graduated from the role of parter and went on to guide the new Laurentians through meetings, receptions, dances, and tests. The Presidential dinner, the picnic and movie at Student Union, and the campus tours were among the highlights of the week's activities.

Despite the lack of pencils at one of the tests, all went smoothly. The absence of a home football game during orientation week did not dull the spirits of the Freshmen. They set record time for learning the school songs and were to be heard later, on several occasions, to be singing them, standing about Dean-Eaton Hall.

The Orientation program was lengthened by means of the Tuesday chapel periods and by a return of the leaders to their Orientation Week discussion groups midway through the first semester.

This year the 1960 Homecoming Weekend was slightly revamped to insure a more smoothly running alumni welcoming.

Among the noticeable changes was the elimination of the traditional float parade. The parade was eliminated because of the time element in a tight Saturday schedule of events. It was decided by the committee that individual fraternity and sorority house displays would more than adequately take the place of the float parade.

Nominations for queen candidates were also handled differently. In past years, each sorority nominated a candidate. This year campus men nominated the seven candidates and voted for the queen of the weekend.

Perfect weather, an S.L.U. victory in football, and an excellent dance sponsored by the Saints and Sinners made this year's Homecoming Weekend a very enjoyable occasion.

The third annual Sigma Chi Derby Day turned out to be the most successful of all. The traditional competition of faculty, sororities, freshmen and independent women in such games as dressing relays, coke drinking, and egg throwing provided the campus with an unusual opportunity of seeing the girls at their competitive best.

When the dust had cleared, it was the Kappos who went home with first prize.

An added part of 1960 Derby Day was the performance of the Dave Brubeck Quartet sponsored by the Student Union in conjunction with Derby Day. During the intermission Bobbie Otis was crowned "Miss Legs" by Dave Brubeck.

The weekend came to a close with a dance at the Sigma Chi house.

The Senate sponsored many projects this year including the Flu Shot Clinic, Blood Bank and Campus Carnival. From Thelma committees came a tutoring program and the basis for a course evaluation program. The Larryettes were brought under Thelma through the Pep Committee.

One of the main contributions from Thelma was the Automotive Policy, drawn up by Student Affairs, which incorporates all the preceding policies relating to cars on campus. Thelomathesian also sponsored the Student Annual Fund Drive, in answer to a challenge from the Angel Committee, to raise money for our University.

The year 1960-61 was very successful for Thelomathesian.

The hard-working girls seen here are just a few of the many who participated in M.E.R.P (Male Economic Recovery Program). M.E.R.P. is a new program initiated by W.S.G.A. which took the place of Gold-diggers this year.

This was a weekend during which, according to the old Golddiggers tradition, the girls asked the boys out and paid for everything as well. M.E.R.P. this year included such things as: buttons worn by those who had been M.E.R.P.-ed, special sundaes at snack-bar, an afternoon when the girls worked at the fraternity houses, and a food sale at the football game.

Speaking from the male point of view, we should have M.E.R.P. more often.

The highlight of the performing arts attractions during the 1960-61 year was the appearance at the Student Union of Marcel Marceau, world-famed mime. Presented by the Concert and Lecture Series and the Student Union, this exponent of the delicate art of pantomime delighted an SRO audience with the major problems of his clown character, Bip, the impersonations of childhood, youth, maturity and old age, and the excruciatingly painful (and beautiful) mask-maker. "Unbelievable" is the only word for this artistic magician.

"The Sophomores will make or break us," said Coach Ron Hoffmann, St. Lawrence Football mentor, during Spring practice 1960. This statement, far-fetched as it may seem, proved to be the story of the 1960-61 Varsity Football Season. Even though few sophomores proved to be spectacular, they were always ready when needed. Their drive and push not only proved their ability, but it also acted as a stimulant to the other players.

However, one cannot overlook nor disparage the outstanding play given by the juniors and seniors. Much credit must certainly be given to outstanding seniors as Capt. Ron Richardson whose outstanding play and leadership carried the Larries to an even season. Neither can one let the fine play of the following seniors go unnoticed: David Sickels best line-man in the Homecoming game; Fred Campo; Robert Kroft, who led the team in passing; Michael Dwyer; Livingston Hotch; and John "Pinto" Pintord who received the coach's discretion award at the recent "L" Club Banquet.

The most valuable player on the team proved to be 160 pound halfback, Tony Conzo. He proved to be the finest back on the St. Lawrence aggregation, leading the team in scoring and yards gained. Indicative of Conzo's stellar running came in the RPI Game when he wiggled his way through eight tacklers with one hand on the ground for balance; he proceeded to go all the way for a 66 yard jaunt to break the game wide open. Conzo ended his collegiate football career gaining 639 yards on 103 carries, scored eight touchdowns and 3 conversions for a total of 54 points.

Likewise the fine play of juniors Gory Gibson, Capt.-elect Charles Luyster, Don Bristol, Dave White, Jim D'Amico, Carl Carriggio, Bob Qua, and Jim Kline must be praised.

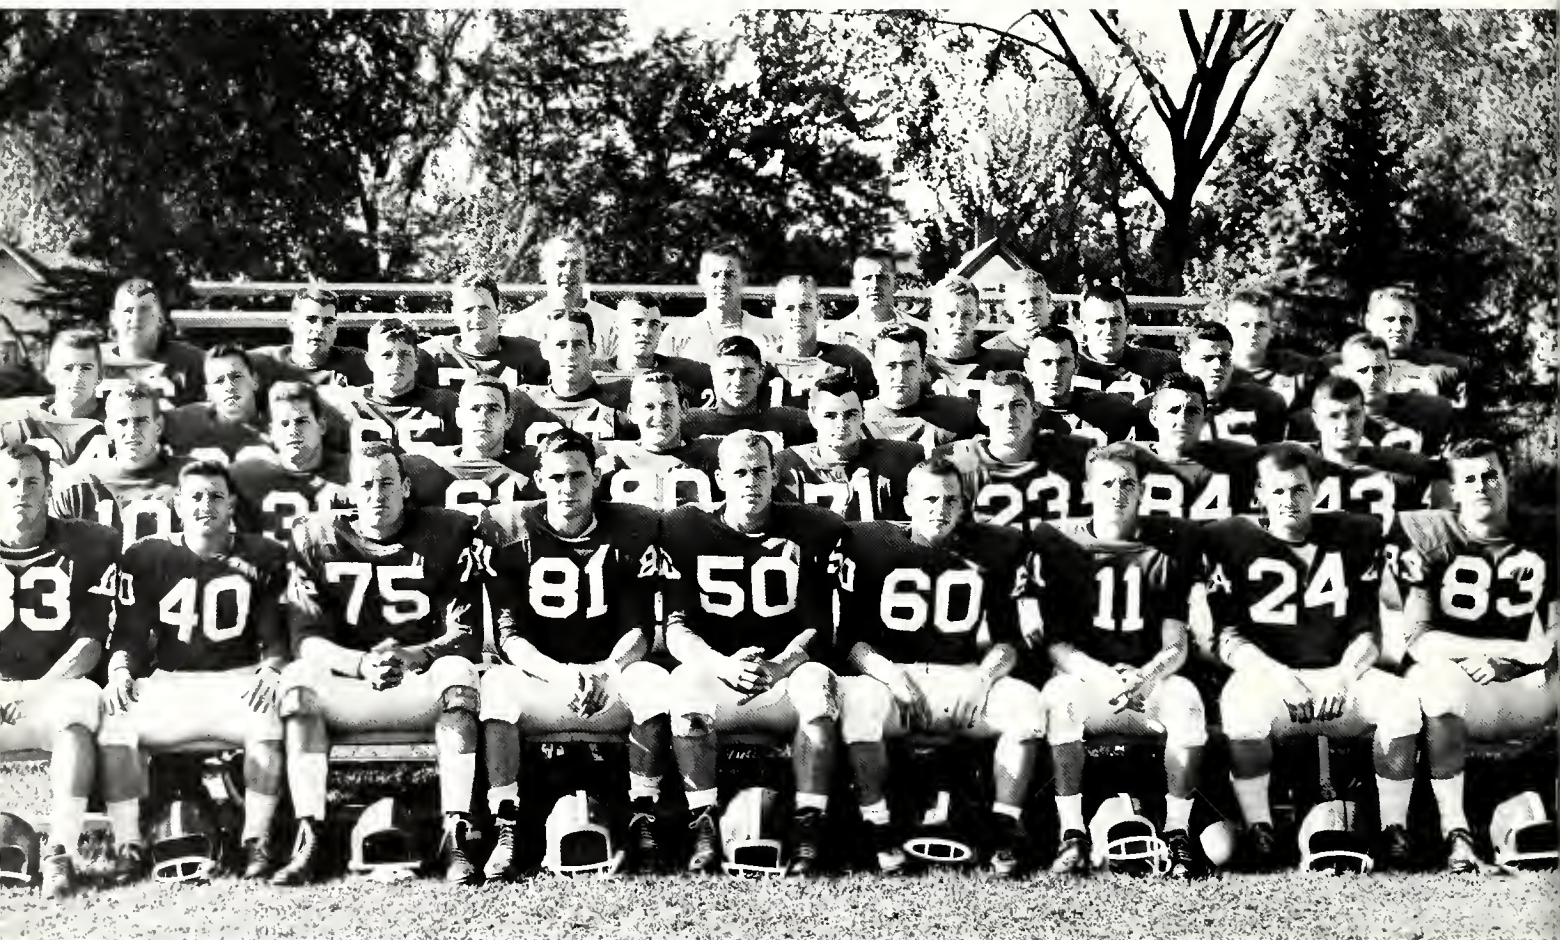

But, in the final analysis, it was the sophomores who told the story. In this group we saw Wally Brawn sprint for a 102 yard TD, punt for an average of 36.2 yards and make sure tackles throughout the season. The smart quarterbacking of Dick Metcalf pulled the Larries closer to victory on many occasions. David Cooke, most improved player, combined his ability and poise to fill in admirably for the injured Dave Sickels.

The season's final record of 3-3-2 was disappointing in some respects but proved praiseworthy in others. We won our first Homecoming game in seven years. We watched a group of individuals play as a team.

The future seems bright with seventeen lettermen returning. A fine backfield is in the making and much help will be given to the line with the advent of four 200 pounders up from the freshman squad.

Among the arts at St. Lawrence there is an active interest in drama, mainly through the efforts of the Mummers, the dramatic honorary on campus. Each year the Mummers sponsor three major productions, and students of the drama class put on readings and one-act plays as well. Students, faculty, and townspeople alike are encouraged to take part in these productions.

If a person is interested in acting, he can try out for the many dramatic events, and receive excellent actor training under the leadership of Professor Marguerite Holmes. A person interested in backstage operations can work afternoons, learning techniques in lighting, scenery, props, and costumes. All of these are blended into productions that have been rated as being Broadway caliber.

In the fall for the hospital benefit Mummers presented "The Matchmaker," a delightful comedy about marriage. The Arts Festival play was "Member of the Wedding," and finally for Moving-up Weekend the uproarious comedy about a gangster in Washington, "Born Yesterday." Also presented during the year were two performances of King Oedipus, readings from E. E. Cummings, and a children's play.

The fourth annual Yukon Day, designed and directed by the members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, was presented to the St. Lawrence University campus on February 2, 1961, and was received with the same enthusiasm that has characterized the event since its inception in 1958.

This year's Queen was Leah Offenhamer, candidate from Kappa Kappa Gamma. She was crowned early on Saturday afternoon and was escorted to the events by sophomore Tom Denton, Phi Kappa Sigma, winner of the beard contest and King of Yukon Day, 1961. The honorary mayor of Yukon Day, "Moose" Levato, crowned the Queen and expressed his deepest appreciation and thanks to the assemblage for the privilege of being mayor of the event.

The Men's Residence team defended their championship in fine fashion against the Betos and won the race-off in one of the wildest and most exciting finishes ever seen on Yukon Day.

The Delta Gammas garnered the trophy in the women's division in their first year in the events.

Following the races, the large crowd squeezed through the swinging doors of the "Yukon Inferno" into the SAE living room for a jazz concert.

At the Open House after the hockey game, $50 checks, to be donated to the charities of the victors' choice, and the trophies were given to the winning teams.

Yukon Day 1961 carried out its original purpose: to unite sororities, fraternities and other organizations of St. Lawrence in a spirit of friendly competition. It is hoped that this spirit will prevail in the future.

FIRST IN THE EAST, SECOND IN THE NATION, this is the story of the St. Lawrence University's Varsity Hockey Team, 1960-61 edition.

It seems only proper that the success story of this fine team should be traced from the very beginning. In its usual fashion, the Larry Skaters began its season against Canadian opposition defeating Laval University twice. During the Thanksgiving Vacation, the Larries split the two games with the University of Michigan, a top Western power. The Larries defeated their next three opponents in a row and then come the usual disastrous Boston Trip. Facing Boston University and Boston College, the Larries fell to defeat. Returning home the Larries fought back winning over the Ottawa Montagnards and arch-rival Clarkson. Next, St. Lawrence traveled South to take three impressive wins against Providence, Yale and Princeton. Back home for the final games of the regular season, St. Lawrence defeated their next five opponents including RPI, Boston College and Boston University. In the final game of the season, St. Lawrence Hockey fans were somewhat dismayed to see their dream team succumb to the Clarkson Engineers. This ended many hopes for an NCAA bid.

But all was not lost, for on March 8, 1961, St. Lawrence received and accepted a berth at the NCAA Intercollegiate Hockey Tournament in Denver, Colo. RPI was the other Eastern representative. This marked the third time in as many years that the Scarlet Skaters from the North Country have appeared in the NCAA Hockey Tournament.

Through the efforts of the Pep Committee, St. Lawrence students turned out in full to wish the hockey team luck in their endeavors at Denver. St. Lawrence University's Cheerleaders braved bitter cold to send off the NCAA hopefuls.

The opening game of the NCAA Tournament saw St. Lawrence facing RPI for the third time in one season. The Larries continued their mastery over the Engineers defeating them 6-3 in a somewhat sloppily played game. However, with this win, St. Lawrence established itself as the indisputable champions of Eastern Hockey. Sophomore Ron Mason proved to be the standout of the game closely followed by Rolie Anderson, who garnered two goals.

In the final game of the tournament, St. Lawrence found itself facing Denver University for the National Collegiate Championship. The Larries startled the Denver Fans grabbing a 1-0 lead early in the first period. But Denver's power was soon realized as they rolled over the Larries 12-2. Denver, it was later said, proved itself to be the finest In-collegiate Hockey Machine ever created.

Thus ends the story of the St. Lawrence Hockey Team, a cohesive unit which fought and fought and almost went all the way. As a final point, Terry Slater and Arlin Parker were named to the Eastern All-American Hockey team. This was Slater's second appearance on this team, a great honor.

The big Saint ski win of the season was the victory in the important Eastern Intercollegiate, Ski Association Intermediate championships at St. Michael's College. The Larries won the Class "B" meet to regain Class "A" rating. Bill Spater was awarded skimeister honors. The Saints edged Yale by 3/10 of a point for the crown.

Big surprise of the season was at the Carleton University meet in Canada where the Fresh skiers ran second, ahead of the third place SLU varsity. Strong fresh performances by Mark Ottey, Bill Rivet, Gabe Stern, and Sloan McBurney, were evident.

The entire varsity squad will return and with the good-looking fresh joining the varsity ranks, the future shapes up on paper as an optimistic one.

The St. Lawrence Student Union is at your service for work, entertainment, and organization.

For the benefit of the student body, the Union is open for activity every weekday and Saturday nights. There are coffee hours on Tuesday and Thursday; Wednesday and Fridays, at 3 and at 7, there are movie days with such films as "On the Waterfront," "High Noon," and "Teahouse of the August Moon." Everyday the Union facilities are at your disposal. Bridge, television, Hi-fi, pool, and badminton are only some of these facilities.

Special events play an important part in the Union's services. In addition to the annual Mistletoe Ball and Dawn Dance, the Union has sponsored such notables as Dave Brubeck and the Modern Jazz Quartet, Marcel Marceau, the pantomimist, and Norman Thomas, the famous Socialist leader.

Your Union also has a well-equipped office at your disposal. There is a lending service for chairs, tables, lights, etc. Posters are drawn by the poster staff, while printed material is made by the Union's embossograph and mimeograph machines.

Mr. Therald Olafson, Union director, and Madge Grace, Union president, were in a great part responsible for the success of the Union this year.

Winter is a time for hibernation, but not so for those St. Lawrence students who took a joyous "Sleighride Through Storyland," from Thursday, February 16 through Sunday, February 19.

What do they remember most of their excursion? . . . The crowning of the handsome royalty — King Gordie Brown, Queen Karen Allred, Prince Milo Matrazzo, and Princess Robin Sisson . . . The spectacular performance at the annual Ice Show of such skating artists as Claire O'Neill, Carol Sansone, Kathy O'Shaughnessy, Bill Mitchell, Paul Schlossbach, Dorothy Ann Nelson, and Pieter Kollin . . . The scarcity of snow and the deserving awards to Phi Kappa Sigma and Delta Gamma for their spiritous efforts in building the best Ice Statues . . . The late arrival at the American Theater of Lambert, Hendricks, and Ross who proved themselves to be the "hottest vocal group in jazz today" . . . The exciting victory for the Larries at the hockey game against Boston University . . . The spills and thrills at the Snow Bowl and the skillful skiing done by the St. Lawrence ski team who finished third to Dartmouth, and by Ned Kelly who was second in line for the ski Meister trophy . . . The enthusiasm from a record breaking crowd at the Song Fest for the harmonic voices of the Sherwoods, the Zumbyes, the Sinners, the Saints and the Laurentian Singers . . . The attractive attire of coeds and their escorts and the fine music supplied by Woody Herman and his orchestra at the ball . . . The inspiring sermon given by the Reverend A. Marsh Laverty at the Sunday morning service in the chapel . . . And the orange juice served at sorority brunches.

To David Geis, chairman; to Mr. A. Olsen and Mr. David Lasher, advisors; and to the Winter Carnival Committee: many thanks for a superb weekend.

FRESHMEN BASKETBALL

In Basketball, as in Football, it was the sophomores who gave the team its spark. Coach Bob Sheldon's courtmen, led by sophomores, Gene Simonsen, most valuable player; Dick Metcalf, most improved player; Rick Brown and Milt Mason, posted their second straight winning season against some of the East's top small college powers.

For the first time in St. Lawrence History, the Larries swept the Vermont state schedule sweeping past Middlebury, Vermont, St. Michael's and Norwich.

The most impressive victory of the season proved to be a 76-75 win over Harwich College before a capacity plus crowd at Brewer Field House. This gave the Horwick Warriors the only defeat of the season.

Coch Sheldon's three seniors, Co-copt's Neil Sweezy and Vic Nardone, and Denny Cronin ended college basketball in style pacing the Larries to their final victory of the season over Norwich. This 90-70 win over the Cadets was one of the more impressive outings of the season.

Coch Sheldon now owns two winning records in a row at SLU and the future looks much brighter than the past. With all but three members of this year's squad returning, next year's hope for an excellent season is not without backing. The four starting sophomores combining with the experienced juniors, Dick Herbert and George Giese, along with some well-groomed freshmen will aid in the making of another winning season.

The International Relations Club ended another very successful year with a picnic at Hulett Lodge. It sponsored the Thirteenth Annual Model Security Council in February which was attended by delegates from Dartmouth, Syracuse, West Point, Sir George Williams, Royal Military College, Albany, Western Ontario, Loyola, and Queens.

Other activities of the club's members included conferences at West Point, Skidmore, Barnard, Sir George Williams, and at the University Model United Nations sponsored by three universities in Montreal.

The program meetings of the club featured speakers on topics of national and international interest, many of whom showed slides which they had taken in their travels.

The officers of the club for this year were: President, Julie Chevolier; Vice-President, Shay Andresen; Secretary-General, Mary Hengstenberg; Secretary, D. D. Cushman; and Treasurer, Tom Hunt.

This year's Hill News staff, under the guidance of Mike Mixsell and Jeanne Heffernan, fall co-editors, and Jeanne Heffernan and Gordy Smith, spring co-editors, will have much to look back upon in the way of fun and work which have gone into the publication of each edition.

None of us will ever forget staying up all night on Election Night to hear the results come in and then leaving our residences at 5 A.M. to go downtown to the office to put out our election edition. The schedule was a little tight, but we did manage to have copies of the paper at each residence before most people had left for their 8 o'clock classes.

Another issue which will remain in our minds for a long time was the one published for April Fool's Day. We really had to use our imaginations to come up with the believable, but completely untrue stories, which appeared on the front page.

These incidents and many more have made for an exciting, interesting, and successful year, which none of us will ever forget.

Art Kesser (61), Andres Steinmetz (61).

A high degree of innovation and originality characterized this year's two editions of the Laurentian, subtitled Nexus and Paradigm, respectively.

Under the editor-in-chief, Art Kesser, the literary board chose to include faculty as well as student articles, hoping to establish a precedent for the future editors. The combination was especially effective in Paradigm, whose central theme revolved around communication in the arts and sciences.

Stories by Josephine Edwards and Captain Gilchrist and poetry by Lynn Sherrell and Jon Joy were accompanied by the distinctive art work of Renee Schultz, contributed to the original layout of the magazine.

The 1960-61 year was a successful one for KSLU because it saw the smooth operation of the station under the new constitution, and the perfection of many departments. The offerings of classical music in the afternoons, and the addition of fine jazz have made the program suited to every taste. Some of the highlights of the year have been the away hockey broadcasts of all the games including the NCAA playoffs in Denver, the rebroadcast of outstanding speakers and concerts, and the expanded news coverage. This year we can honestly say that we have resented "Radio Quality."

The St. Lawrence University varsity tennis team climaxed the 1961 spring season with a thrilling victory in the Atlantic Coast NCAA College Division Championships at Cortland State.

The varsity tennis team, '61 edition, finished its season undefeated, the first time in the history of this sport at St. Lawrence.

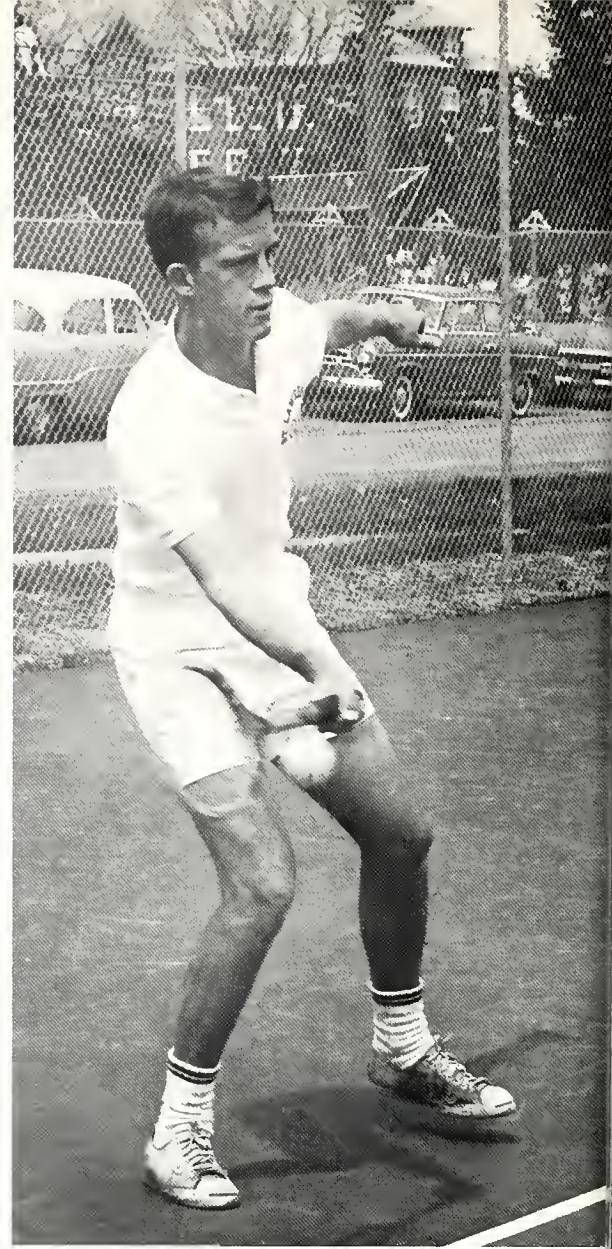

The standouts of the team during the season were Bob Wood and Capt. John Gornell, most valuable player. Neither player lost a match during the regular season. In the NCAA Tourney, these two netmen were again the standouts.

Wood and Gornell were placed against each other in the NCAA Championships after each had defeated all of their opponents. Wood won this stellar match two sets to one playing with a wrenched back. Gornell won the first set 6-4 but then succumbed to his teammate's powerful game 7-5 and 6-0.

Gene Simonsen, a sophomore tennis and basketball standout was ousted in the second match. Sam Bell, another sophomore, was defeated in his first match.

It was the second time this year that a varsity team from St. Lawrence brought home NCAA medals and plaques. The hockey team placed second in the annual NCAA hockey tournament at Denver last March.

Cooch Tom Cortmill, pleased with the undefeated year turned in by his netmen plus a tournament championship has even more to be thankful for. His entire team will be back next season. The only senior on the 1961 team was a spare doubles player.

Beginning in a rather disastrous fashion, the St. Lawrence Golf Team recovered to gain a respectable 6-8 season record. Coach Stan Mack, in his second season at St. Lawrence, now has an 11-13 overall record.

The first three matches, played during constant rainstorms on away courses, resulted in 7-0, 7-0, and 8-1 losses for the Larry Linksmen. A 5-2 victory over the Purple Knights of St. Michael's in the season's first home match snapped the three match losing streak. Clarkson proved to be too strong for the Lories in '61 for they swept three of three matches.

Capt. Bill Lehner, most valuable player, proved to be the steadiest man on the Larry squad. Following him closely was sophomore Howie Reynolds. Together, these two Linksmen won five straight matches apiece after losing the first three.

The low score of the season came in the final match with Clarkson when senior Vince Massey hit a low 74.

Next years hopes look good as the team loses but two seniors through graduation, Vince Mossey and Wally Wasmer. Five lettermen will be returning.

Coach Stan Mack, Bill Lehner (62)

A new varsity sport has been added at St. Lawrence with the advent of the Rifle Team. Because of this sport, more members of the college are able to compete in intercollegiate athletics.

Rifle is a very difficult and complicated sport. It is, without a doubt, the most difficult sport in which one can earn a varsity letter. To gain a varsity "L" each member must be on the team for two consecutive years, shoot in 75% of the matches and have an average score of above 275 points.

For the past two years, the St. Lawrence Rifle Team has been competing against the top Eastern College teams. Cornell, Canisius, Alfred, Clarkson, Colgate, Syracuse and Rochester are in the league with St. Lawrence.

In '61, three members, of the team earned their letters; Tim Stevens, Charles Riordan, and Robert Krudop. The Larries' hopes for bettering their league standing are bright with five members of the team returning for next year's season.

The Gridiron would like to wish the St. Lawrence Rifle Team the best of luck in its future as a new varsity sport.

Intramural activity is an important part of St. Lawrence life. This year saw the usual struggle between SAE and Beta, but with a surprise ending as SAE took the long held sports banner away from Beta. In football, SAE was first and Beta second. In basketball, again it was SAE first and Beta second. In hockey, ATO was first, the Darms, second, and SAE, third. In wrestling Beta was first, followed by SAE and ATO. In volleyball Beta was first and Sig Chi was second. Betas were also first in ping-pong. In bowling, SAE was first, and Phi Sig and Sig Chi followed. In golf, SAE finished first and Beta, second. In tennis, Phi Sig was first, and Beta and SAE followed. In softball, SAE was first, with Beta and Phi Sig following.

Final standings in intramurals was SAE first, Beta second, and Phi Sig third.

The Student Judiciary Board is a judicial agency that hears all cases of student infraction of University rules of conduct. It may be called in by any agency or individual who feels that there is a need for its services. When the decision on a disciplinary action is reached, the recommendation is sent to the President of the University who is the only person who has the power to take actual action.

An organization which is highly respected by the faculty and administration, the Board performs a vital function on the campus. Following the democratic principle of judgment by peers, this group helps to retain the ideal of student self-government.

This year's Panhellenic Council, under the direction of Geardie Bowers, president, played an important role in the sorority life of the campus. In regulating the rushing rules, the council tries to insure a fair and equal opportunity to all the freshmen women to join the sorority of their choice. A few changes were made upon the old constitution in order to liberalize the rules. Open discussion of inter-sorority problems is encouraged and a further change in the rushing rules next year will go far to promote better inter-sorority relations. The Council sponsors a Tea before school starts to introduce freshmen to some of the St. Lawrence co-eds, and on campus it gives the freshmen boys a chance to meet the sorority women through the Freshmen Bays' Open House. The Council also publishes an informative pamphlet about the six sororities which it distributes to the freshmen women in the fall.

Two of the cardinal principles of the fraternity system are the encouragement of good scholarship, and the devotion to one's fellows. In keeping with these ideals, the Interfraternity Council awards two $100 scholarships to deserving men each year. The two men are selected from a list of candidates by the Dean of Men and the Scholarship Committee. The qualifications for this award are a 2.5 scholastic average, a definite financial need, and membership in a fraternity. These awards are made by the president of IFC on Moving-Up Day.

A most successful year for the U.S. Army ROTC Cadets was brought to a conclusion when the members of the First U.S. Army Inspection Team rated the Corps of Cadets as "the finest Senior Civilian College Cadet Corps that they ever had the pleasure to inspect."

This year the accent in training was on an expanded field training program emphasizing guerilla and anti-guerilla warfare. This invaluable training was carried out often under the most unfavorable weather conditions, including night patrolling in sub-zero weather, bridge construction across a frozen creek, gapping anti-personnel fields under clouds of CN Gas (without protective masks), and outpost and security problems in the swamps near the confluence of the Grass and Little Rivers.

This intensive training will reap its dividends when the graduating Lieutenants from St. Lawrence University face their demanding tasks as responsible officers of the United States Army in posts throughout the world.

Coach George Menard's baseballers began the season with five straight wins before falling to defeat at the hands of Hobart. With superlative pitching from Bob Quo, Al Pritchard, Pete Swenson, and Chris Day, the Lorries were able to overcome such teams as LeMoyne, RPI, UVM, St. Michaels, and Syracuse.

The season's end saw Joe Sullivan leading in the batting average column with a .350 plus average. He proved to be a fine lead-off man for the team as he collected some ten hits and well-placed bunts. Parker and Cronin followed close behind.

Quo proved to be the strongest pitcher for the Lorries this year. He ended the season with a 3-1 record and an ERA a low .70. Pete Swenson, a sophomore, filled in admirably whenever the starters found themselves in trouble.

The Lorries' defensive play was led by center fielder Jack Von de Water, most valuable player. A perfect throw from deep center field proved to be the cause of a 2-1 victory over LeMoyne.

The future looks bright as only three seniors will leave. The entire pitching staff will return. The infield loses shortstop Cronin, while the greatest loss will be felt in the outfield with the absence of Mills and Von de Water.

This year the Women's Athletic and Recreation Association was under the leadership of president Linda Fuhrmann, vice-president Pam Mason, secretary Joan Ferry, and treasurer Margie Chapin. In addition to sponsoring seasonal programs of intramural competition, WARA instituted several new programs this year. In the winter season WARA on Ice was presented. This included various skating competitions, and a trophy was presented to the winning sorority-Kappa Delta. Also instituted was a trophy to be given to the residence that participated the most in WARA activities throughout the year. This was won by the Delta Gamma house.

Parents Weekend began Thursday evening with "Barn Yesterday" presented by the Mummers Dramatic Society. Friday followed with an ROTC parade, tennis match and the play. Moving-Up Day, Saturday, May 6, dawned bright and early as parents, boyfriends, and other guests hurried off to the Strawberry breakfasts. Afterwards the chapel ceremonies began, highlighted by the address of Dr. Foster S. Brawn, '30. Following the presentation of awards, weaving and the tapping ceremonies of Mortar Board and ODK, many adjourned to the Parents luncheon. There the Laurentian Singers entertained with a marvelous performance. Baseball, golf, tennis, the WARA horse show, and a coffee hour kept everyone busy in the afternoon. In the evening, the fraternity houses held open dances until two a.m. The eventful weekend closed Sunday with a chapel service and the IFC Sangfest, won this year by Phi Sigma Kappa.

On June 4, the class of 1961 found their days of dependency and irresponsibility suddenly behind them. That long-awaited day when we would become independent, when we could begin fulfilling the hopes, dreams, and plans we had been formulating, had finally arrived. Degrees in hand, we bid farewell to our college days, the carefree days of shared joys and disappointments, the days of unique first and last experiences. Simultaneously, we welcomed the advent of an entirely new and adult life where we would have the opportunity to prove ourselves completely on our own.

On Graduation Day the world belonged to us, and life was an exciting, challenging adventure we stepped out eagerly to meet. Owing much to the faculty, administration, and enduring friendships we had made at St. Lawrence, we were prepared to meet the many challenges ahead. The past four years had made indelible impressions upon each of our personalities, and as we faced that nebulous entity, the future, we looked backward with gratitude and forward with confidence.

Anticipation

Tomorrow! The most significant word in the language of man. Weaving its subtle magic around our hearts, it strengthens us with hope and courage. Heads up and shoulders back! We are walking into the future. Which fork in the road shall we take? What lies beyond the bend? Education is an excellent vantage point from which we may survey our road in life. Living in the present, the tomorrow of yesterday, we visualize in our minds' eyes that which is yet to come. Campus and classrooms melt away, and the wide world opens before us. We are going into the future armed with our heritage from the past, with eagerness and anticipation.

Senior year is a time for reflecting back upon our four years of college life — years filled with experiences never to be forgotten. The friendships made and the knowledge we have gained will last through the years that follow graduation.

The strangeness of our first days at St. Lawrence soon vanished and we were ready to take an active part in all college activities. Reflecting back over the years brings back memories of the ponty raid on Dean Eaton Hall, the Halloween celebration, decorating the campus for Christmas, the freshman girls winning the Yukon Day sled races, building a snow statue for Winter Carnival. Ours was the last class to live in the sophomore cottages and as a class that year we headed the WUS drive on campus. Junior year we organized Campus Carnival and we remember our classmates being elected to high campus positions, playing key position on varsity teams, and preparing for the leadership expected of us as seniors. We finally reached the last year at St. Lawrence and assumed the positions we had worked hard to attain. As we leave we look ahead toward the promises the future offers, but there will be many times when we will reflect back upon the years spent at St. Lawrence.

An Old Link ... Still Much Alive!

Ties between the people of New York State's North Country and Canadians have been close since the earliest pioneer days.

Today this association is as strong and vigorous as ever.

That is one reason why we salute the students and alumni of St. Lawrence University which, for more than a hundred years, has occupied a position of distinction in the field of education.
